

The Farm at San Benito wins the “2013 World’s Best Medical Wellness Resort”

The spa industry’s Oscars equivalent, SENSES Wellness Awards were announced in early March and Philippines-based The Farm at San Benito was deemed “Best Medical Wellness Resort” worldwide for the second time running at Internationale Tourismus-Börse (ITB), one of the world’s largest tourism fairs in Berlin, Germany.

Luckily The Farm’s trophy cabinet is large, as this award marks 26 international accolades in just a decade of operation.

Influential members of international hotel, lifestyle and wellness industries gathered at the gala event to promote and support the premium lifestyle and wellness guide and global gauge for excellence published in English, German and Russian (www.senses.de).

Judges reward outstanding resorts and spas that adhere to and embody the SENSES Wellness ethos – offering comprehensive, holistic service that includes exemplary wellness standards, medical treatments and therapies, expertly administered by highly-trained staff at unique, serene and tranquil locations. The Farm at San Benito team is proud to receive global recognition for continued commitment to empower every guest to reach and maintain optimum health and embrace conscious living.

Located in Batangas, Philippines, The Farm at San Benito team guide and support thousands of new and recurring guests to attain and sustain improved quality of life through preventive health strategies, integrative medical services and pure, nourishing food. Combining detoxification/cleansing retreats with raw, livecuisine was considered revolutionary in 2002. Today, The Farm at San Benito remains the only Philippines resort to offer natural and holistic health programs that address cancer care, diabetes, hypertension and obesity.

Change your health and your life with a nourishing and cleansing holiday. All-inclusive Wellness Programs start at USD 299++ and Detox Cleanse/Specialised Healing Retreats are priced from USD 499++ per person per night.
