

Filipino Fiesta: A Culinary Tour of the Philippines

---

Event Date: 05/21/2013, 6:30 pm

presented by the Philippine Department of Tourism

Discover the Philippines!

Get ready to jump into what Andrew Zimmern calls the next food trend – dishes culled from centuries of painstaking preparation in grandma's kitchen now in the hands of chefs who with equal pride and passion are ready to draw you into the heady palettes of Filipino cuisine.

Whether it be “matamis” (sweet), “maalat” (salty), “maanghang” (hot and spicy), the best of Filipino foods are now just a subway train ride away in New York City.

As you dip into these culinary island treasures, sip tropical cocktails created by up and coming mixologist Enzo Lim and be introduced to new exotic tastes of the kalamansi and Philippine mango.

Come share with us an evening of Fiestahan - it will be simply delicious! Or as we say it “Masarap”!

Tuesday, May 21, 6:30pm to 9:30pm
The Bowery Hotel, 335 Bowery between Great Jones and Bond Streets

Must be 21 or older - please be prepared to present a valid photo ID.

<http://tickets.manhattancocktailclassic.com/venueperformancelisting.asp?venue=108>

Philippine Department of Tourism, New York
556 5h Ave., NY, NY 10036
Tel.: 212-575-7915
www.philippinetourismny.org
www.itsmorefuninthephilippines.com